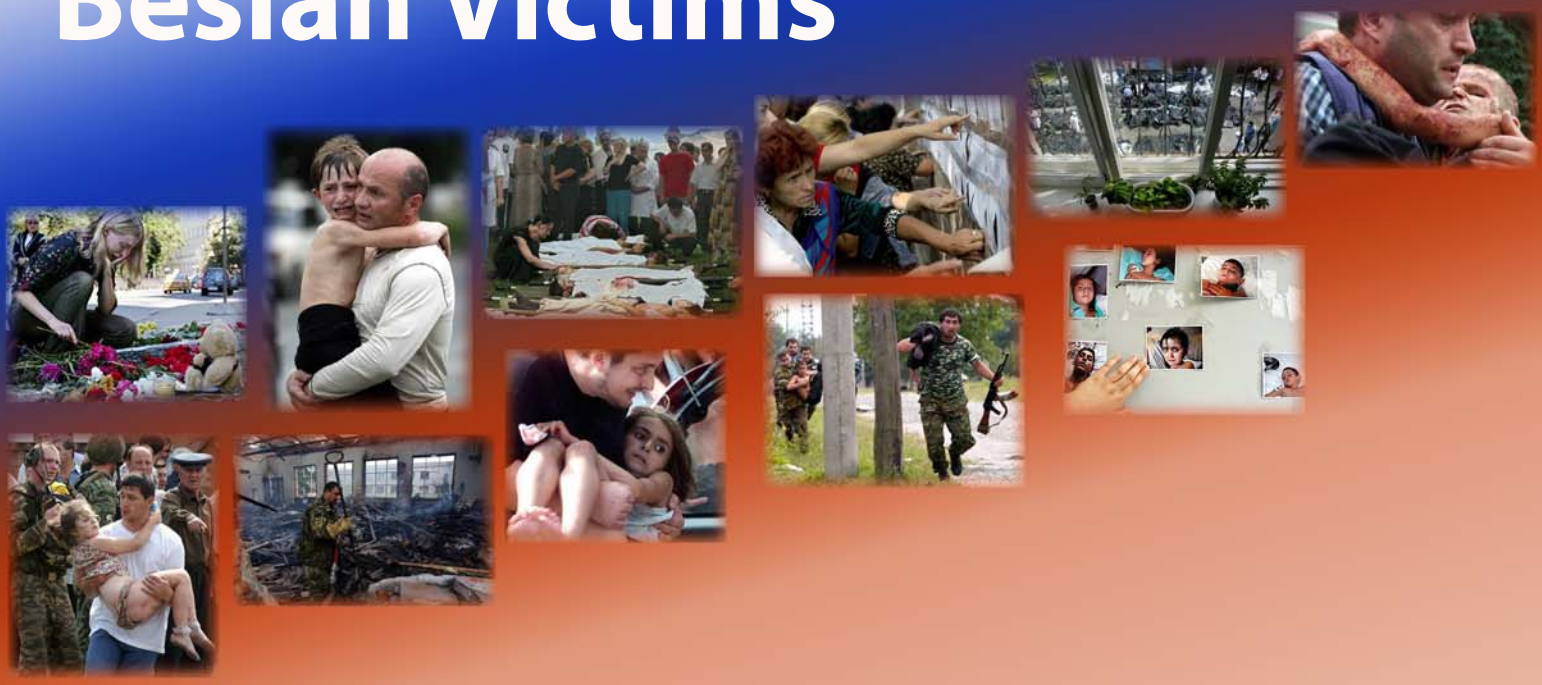
HELP
Beslan Victims



On the first day of the school year, September 1, 2004, terrorists took hostage over one thousand schoolchildren and their parents in a school building in the North Osetian town of Beslan in Russia. The bloody aftermath left over 300 dead and many more wounded, mostly children.

Caltech Russian Club is collecting donations to help the surviving victims of this horrible tragedy. You can donate to the club representatives or electronically. Please show your support and stop by our table outside Red Door Café, adjacent to the Caltech Bookstore on Friday, Sep 17th 11 am - 7 pm.

For details or electronic donations use:

Email/Paypal account: sovok@its.caltech.edu
Website: www.rusclub.caltech.edu